

Changes to Dental Clinics

Many dental offices have made changes to the way they operate due to the circumstances surrounding COVID-19. Many have taken a number of extra measures to ensure the safety, health and comfort of both their patients and staff.

If you need to make an appointment or seek dental care, here are some changes you should anticipate during your next office visit.

Changes for Patients

Schedule Early
Appointments will fill up fast.

Personal Masks
Masks may be required.

Temperature Checks
Expect to be screened both over the phone and once you arrive. Some offices will have temperature checks.

Social Distancing
You may be asked to wait in another safe and open space instead of a waiting room.

Changes in Dental Offices

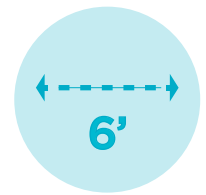

Schedule Times
Fewer or staggered appointments.

Extra PPE
Staff wearing extra gloves, masks and gowns.

Personal Hygiene
Hand sanitizer should be available to all patients.

Spaced Out Areas
Waiting rooms closed or rearranged for social distancing.
